February 17, 2010

Dear Colleague:

On Tuesday, March 16, 2010, Harold Koh, Legal Adviser, U.S. Department of State will share his views on "The Role of Law in the Obama Administration's National Security Policy," at our Standing Committee on Law and National Security breakfast program. The breakfast will be held at the University Club, 1135 16th Street, NW in Washington and will begin at 8:00 a.m.

Former Dean of Yale Law School, Mr. Koh is one of the country's leading experts on public and private international law, national security law and human rights. He and his team of lawyers are responsible for advising the Secretary of State, the White House and other government departments on the scope of domestic and international law matters affecting US foreign relations.

The charge for this breakfast is $25.00. Reservations must be made in advance. Checks made payable to "ABA" may be enclosed with the response card and returned by March 11. If you are bringing guests, please note their names on the card. In the event you need to cancel your reservation, a refund will be made provided notice of cancellation is received in our office by March 11. There is no charge for members of the press.

We look forward to seeing you at our next breakfast program on Tuesday, March 16.

Sincerely,

Harvey Rishikof
Chair
